

Pomegranate

Pomegranate is originated in Iran and used to be a kind of royal fruit in ancient Greece. Its existence dates back to 4,000 years ago when pomegranate was a luxurious souvenir of Iran. Rather unbelievable, as the 1st producer in the world, Iran grows hundreds kinds of pomegranate some of which are quite well-known with differences in taste, size and color.

Type: Organic

Annual Production in Iran:
About 300,000 MT (2017)

Packing:
10kg

World Rank in Production:
the World's largest Producer of Pomegranate

Regions:
Fars, Lorestan, Tehran

Varieties:
Malas, Rabab, Khazar,
Naderi, Ardestani
and Maykhosh.

■ Approx. Gross Weight
20,000 kg

■ Approx. Net Weight
18,500 kg

■ Packing
Plastic Basket

■ Size
+300 gr

■ No. of Pallets
26

■ Optimum Carrying
Temperature (°C)
5 - 7

